K5G). Such a set is rarely offered and will make magnificent showing for the purchaser. Includes 1½d, 1½d on Pict. Paper, 1½d on Pict. Paper with 2 stamps no wmk., 2d violet, 2d yellow, 2½d, 3d, 4d yellow, 4d violet, 4½d, 5d, 6d, 7½d, 8d blue, 9d and 1/- vermilion. (Note that the 1/- is in the scarcer vermilion shade). - (c) George V Major Re-entries. The famous 4d (Plate 20 Row 4 No. 10) re-entry, commonly called the "club-foot 4". This was caused through the 2½d value being entered in error on the plate, later being erased and replaced by a correct 4d impression. Traces of the "2" of the "2½d" clearly remain, resulting in a prominent and most interesting variety. We offer this variety in Perfect mint "two-perf. blocks of four in both the 4d yellow and 4d violet. The two valuable variety blocks £8
- (d) George V Major Re-entry. The same "club-foot" re-entry, this time in combined perfs. positional selvedge block of 6 of the 4d violet. A minor crease makes this block just a little less than 100 per cent but still a most attractive buy at our price £4
- (e) George V Partial Imperf. Probably the finest item in a Newsletter crammed with rare pieces. The 1/- orange-vermilion, mint vertical pair, top stamp imperf., bottom stamp imperf. at top. This variety is one of the really rare George V imperfs. In absolutely impeccable condition, a gem for the finest of collections £35
- (f) George V "Imperf. at top." The 2d yellow surface print. Two mint pairs, one on Cowan paper perf. 14, the other on Wiggins Teape paper perf. 14. Both pairs are imperf. at top with wide top selvedge. The W.T. pair is somewhat off-centre. The two pairs £7/10/0
- (g) George V 3d Surface Print Variety. The prominent "flaw on face" variety in mint block of 4 of the scarce perf. 14 on Cowan. Also the same flaw on the Official 3d De La Rue (pair) and the Official 3d Cowan perf. 14 (block). The three scarce flaws 80/-
- (h) George V Booklet Panes. The ½d on De La Rue, 2 complete panes, one being the blurred impression. Also 2 complete panes of the 1d Admiral, one perf. 14 the other perf. 14 x 15, both with Parisian ads. All panes in top condition. The four panes £6/10/0
