HERE AND THERE.

- 323 4d. Mt. Cook. A fine used copy of F4a (S.G. 340) with flaw on LA and officially patched at foot 40/-
- 324 1d. Chalon, S.G. 111a. The so-called accidental imperf. of the stamp usually perf. 12½; carries our guarantee. This is a fine single specimen with good margins (S.G. £65 for a pair—a real case of uncataloguing, for a pair would be fab!). The single £15
- 325 1d. Universal, C.P. G9c (S.G. 419a). The mixed perfs. of the Waterlow Plate W.1. Very fine and rare £10
- 326 Marlborough 2d. Retouch. The big retouch to background around bowsprit (known as the "finger-print" retouch, C.W. 15/-). Fine used single 4/6
- 327 1958 Healths. The notable variety—"big tent retouched," a used single with another (normal) for comparison. The two fine used ... 7/6
- 328 1961 Christmas.
(a) A used single with inverted watermark. Has a minor crease, but this is a scarce stamp 35/-
(b) Normal used—two fine shade differences, including the scarce yellower shade 1/6
- 329 1942 Captain Cook, perf. 12½. A fine used specimen of the blurred print "double print, one albino"—guaranteed genuine £4
- 330 1936-1942 2/- Captain Cook. A remarkable two stamps, both fine used. One is S.G. 589 and the other 589a. The first shows the "Coconuts" flaw of R8/2 while 589a (also R8/2) shows the extensive corrective retouch to background lines and outline of palm leaves. The two at the very reasonable price of 20/-
- 331 1942 1/- Tui re-entries. A fine lot of 18 used of this stamp, every one identified for plate position, and every one a different late state re-entry. Some of the 18 are overprinted Official, but all are the 14 x 13½ on coarse paper. The set, ridiculously cheap 35/-
- 333 1936 ½d. Fantail. Mentioned in 1st month's notes: R8/1 Clematis flaw and the remarkable triple re-entry (R5/17) in the value hexagon. Fine used, the two 22/6

Wanting a Country Holiday?

My wife and I often visit Devon and Cornwall and we have found a delightful spot in "St. Andrews," Lustleigh, near Newton Abbot. It is just what N.Z. visitors to England like to find: the real picture-book, quiet and unspoilt English village with easiest of access by car to the moors, the sea and the bigger cities like Exeter, Torquay and Plymouth. Almost any part of Devon and most of Cornwall are easily reached.

The food at St. Andrews is without frills but uniformly delightful and wholesome.

I know there are a few vacancies still for August and September. Anyone interested should phone Miss Kay, Lustleigh 376. Incidentally this is an unsolicited free testimonial — which ought to mean something!

RARITIES.

- | | | |
|-----|--|------|
| 317 | New Zealand No. 1. We have for sale a very fine copy of N.Z.'s first stamp — the famous 1d. deep carmine-red. This is a faultless copy other than that its margins are close in places. The design is intact. The colour is superbly fresh and strong and remembering that another copy, no better than this save in its margins, was sold for £750 last year, this must be good buying at our price | £190 |
| 318 | 1/- Chalon Imperf. (S.G. 100) — A magnificent strip of four. A full-margined strip with splendidly light postmark of Auckland — originally from the Caspary collection. A gem to add lustre to any collection | £160 |

CATALOGUE COVERS AVAILABLE.

The covers provided with our Loose-Leaf Catalogue last indefinitely but some people have been using theirs daily for twelve years or more, and though still as strong as ever they could be looking a bit tatty (the covers we mean). A brand new one would look good, don't you agree? Another thought: the book is a big volume these days: why not have a second cover for carrying the Sections that interest you most to Club Meetings, etc.? The C.P. Catalogue Ring Binder Cover, still the same in colour, size, rings and superb workmanship — Post free 32/6.

|-----|--|------|
| 321 | Early T.P.O. Cancellation. A fine cover to Edinburgh bearing the type of N.Z. Travelling P.O. mark (R.T.P.O. over D.S. in an oval of bars), and the small "R.T.P.O. (D.S.)" back-stamp of Aug. 1881. The cover carries six copies of the 1d. mauve First Sideface. A fine and rare piece | £15 |
| 322 | Postal History — an important and unique find. Fine used copies of the 6d. Kiwi and the 1/- Keas showing clearly dated 1906 and 1907 usage of the "F.M.B." (Foreign Mail Branch) cancellation of Wellington. This usage is five years earlier than that recorded in the Handbook Vol. 2. An enlarged photo accompanies the two stamps. The lot | £6 |
| 334 | 1d. Mt. Cook and 1d. Edward. Two good flaws. (1) 1d. Mt. Cook 14 x 15 with big frame flaw below ND; (2) 1d. Edward with white dot between N and Y. Both these are constant flaws, but seldom seen or offered. The two, fine used | 10/- |
| 335 | 1898 1d. Taupo. The best re-entry in this value — R1/1 of Plate 2 with doubling of POSTAGE, bottom frame, right frame and top frame. A really major item this, fine used | 12/6 |
| 336 | 4d. 1898 Terraces. Three different, all finest mint, all different shades, all re-entries. The three mint | 20/- |
| 337 | 2d. 1898 Pembroke Peak. One of the finest 1898 re-entries — Plate 1, R4/4, doubling over virtually the whole frame area. Fine used ... | 12/6 |
| 338 | 2d. Chalon on Cover. How would you like to have a real Chalon cover from 1870? Here it is — the 2d. blue, fine used on original cover, with Otago "O" postmark. Back-stamped Lawrence (in the Goldfields area). Scarce, but a good stock available. Each cover, fine | 35/- |
| 339 | 2d. Chalon on Cover. Earlier than the above, dated 1868/69 and addressed to Tokomairiro. This P.O. had its name changed to Milton in 1872, so the back-stamp is quite a collector's piece in itself. Each cover, with 2d. Chalon, "O" postmark and clear Tokomairiro back-stamp | 50/- |
